

This is Germany

by Laura Dietrich

Refrain:

This is Germany (yeah),
look how I'm living now,
look how I'm living now,
ain't nobody unpunctual.

The youth drink a lot of beer,
they have no police violence to fear.
We got a good economy
holding our back,
are there workplaces?
You can say "check"!

We are famous for our good cars
and we created a strong middle class.
There is also a gap between rich and poor,
but with Harz4 we're helping to cure.

In general nobody has to sleep on the streets,
you can get help and nap in warm sheets.
If you get old no worries 'bout money,
the pension you get will help you, honey.

Also in Germany you'll find people practising harassment,
but nearly everywhere is a police department.

PS: We also love our Schützenfest, Germany is the best.
